Foreword

We began the year planning on "Changes" as the theme of the 1974-75 EAGLE. But we realized that all the changes spoke for themselves; therefore, we felt it was unnecessary to have a theme. Since this year was a prelude to the many changes that are going to occur, we decided to drop the idea of a theme all together. The changes throughout this yearbook are simply that.

I would like to thank everyone in the Journalism II class, because without them there would have been no yearbook. Special thanks, of course, goes to Mr. Tom Moore, our sponsor, for the many hours he spent toiling with, understanding, and making it possible for us to make the 1974-75 Eagle a dream come true.

Administrative Leaders

This year's administrators have worked as a team to improve Brentwood High School. Some of the improvements for this year are semester electives, alternative education, National Manpower Aid to Students, VIP Club, and Performing Arts Club. These new and exciting programs have complemented the educational system. The administrators have supported these projects, which have in turn, made school more interesting.

Nineteen hundred seventy-five is just "another year," but to the graduates of BHS, it is a dream come true, a goal finally reached, and the beginning of a new life. Thus, as seniors we traditionally go down in history, never to experience high school days again.

We will travel on various roads, on different paths, and head in different directions. However, the image of our friends and the precious times experienced at BHS will be in our hearts and minds for many years.

It was all of us together--talking--cheering--laughing--sharing--that made our SENIOR YEAR the best year ever. We will never forget the activities which made our senior year a very special year; the most impressive, GRADUATION.

As seventh graders we dreamed of becoming seniors. As seniors we dreamed of building our future.

J.V. Cheerleaders

The J.V. cheerleaders were exceptional this year. Led by their sponsor, Mrs. Karen Corbett, they continually promoted spirit and enthusiasm. The public saw new and revised cheers, chants, and skillfully executed stunts. The girls were also involved in many behind-the-scenes activities, such as creating slogans and painting signs, not to mention their countless hours of practice. The addition of a sixth cheerleader did not weaken the squad in the least. The girls worked closely together and created a dynamic squad.

Why do we need cheerleaders? To promote spirit, to constantly keep the morale of the boys high, to welcome other schools. A cheerleader must be much more than her title implies.

During the past year the Girls Athletic Association supplied cheer, skill, and school spirit throughout the athletic events of our school. The girls had an active year participating in a number of activities; such as game competition, banquets and a picnic. Something new was tried this year. Instead of individual class competition, the interschool program was divided into "A" and "B" teams. The original interschool sports were hockey, basketball, volleyball, and track. Gymnastics and softball were added. GAA had a very successful year.

"Dirty Work at the Crossroads" tells in laughable style the tear-jerking story of Nellie Lovelace, an innocent country girl; of Adam Oakhart, the stalwart blacksmith's son; and of Munro Murgatroyd, the villain from the big city. Munro, the viper, has a wife in Ida Rhinegold, the belle of the New Haven Music Hall, but that does not prevent him from pursuing the innocent Nellie and tearing her from the arms of her dying mother (whom, incidentally, he has poisoned). Nor does it prevent him from driving Adam to drink, from blackmailing the rich Mrs. Upson Asterbilt, or from bewitching her daughter, Leonie.

"Boys and Ghouls Together" is the story of how the last of the Draculas were trying to find a husband for their daughter. The father had to choose from among many hostlers to whom he had rented his castle. There were no more strange people left in the world for his daughter to choose from; therefore, he began to undertake the task of finding her a suitable husband. The goings on make for the comedy.

Homecoming 1974

Brentwood's third annual Homecoming began Monday, November 4, with the opening of Spirit Week. Queen candidates were nominated and voted on. Banquets were held to honor various clubs, teams, and coaches. Pep Club and Lettermen were both busy decorating for Spirit Hall and the Homecoming Dance. Thursday was the car, parade, followed by the bonfire. Also to contribute to another successful Homecoming, juniors delivered mums, finishing touches were added to the small gym; and Brentwood beat Eureka 12-6. The excitement-filled week came to an end Saturday night as Shelly Steininger was crowned Queen of Homecoming 1974.

Poem

TO THE SENIORS

Another year goes passing by
 Another Prom is here
 To some this brings a joyous smile
 To others, brings a tear
 For four years you have tread a path
 From dawn to setting sun
 But now the path gets steeper
 And the climb is just begun.
 We're very glad to know you
 We'll miss you when you've gone
 And to the Class of '75
 We dedicate our Prom.

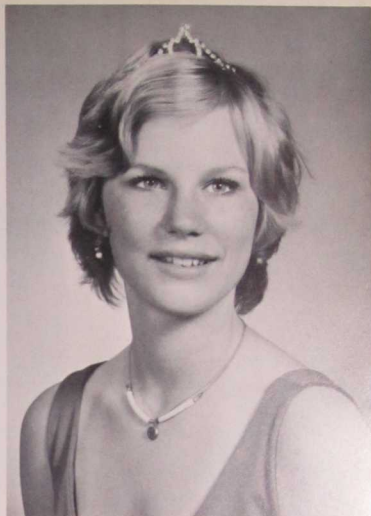

—The Juniors

Sayonara ~~to~~

The Junior Class chose Sayonara as the theme of the 1975 Junior-Senior Prom. The occasion was presented on May 10 in honor of the Senior Class.

The coronation began with the entrance of retiring queen Debbie Troy and her escort Kevin Grinstead. Next to enter was Paula Grant, third maid, escorted by John Honig, followed by Kathy Krewson, second maid, escorted by Bob Smith, and entering next was Karen Koch, first maid, escorted by Dave Slazinik. Queen Cindy Miller entered and was escorted to her throne by Dean Waldemer.
